

2016 AMTRAK - DUTCHESS COUNTY FARM FRESH TOURS

October 1 & 2 Bees & Honey, Cider & Apples

Explore the delightful Village of Rhinebeck, boasting 437 National Historic Register sites, fabulous restaurants, charming boutiques and shops. Then head to Montgomery Place Orchards, where you will learn about bees, honey, and apple varieties from the Fincke family who've run this 1700s estate farm for the last 29 years. The third stop of the day will be at Migliorelli Farm Orchards, a family-run fruit and vegetable farm that supplies fresh picked produce daily to over 30 fresh markets a week both locally and in NYC. The final stop will be at Sawkill Farm. This family-owned farm in northern Dutchess raises wholesome and delicious meat and vegetables. They sell grass-fed beef & lamb, pastured pork & poultry, fresh eggs and organic vegetables from their garden. Their products are also available at markets in New York City.

October 15 & 16 Fall Harvest Festival, Craft Distillery & Winery

Explore the historic Village of Rhinebeck, which includes many restaurants and shops as well as the Beekman Arms. Established in 1776, "the Beek" is the oldest, continuously operating inn in America. Then, enjoy a real country "hands-on" Fall festival, at family-owned *Kesicke Farm**. Pumpkins, a 5-acre corn maze, wagon rides, friendly animals to pet and feed plus a farm stand featuring their produce, meats, and fresh eggs. The last stop of the day features two stops in one! Set on a 12-acre farm, *Hudson Valley Distillery** makes small batch applejack, vodka, gin and whiskey. See the farm to bottle process on the tour, taste award winning spirits on the outdoor patio, or relax with a fantastic cocktail in the cocktail grove. Across the street is *Tousey Winery**, a family-run enterprise. Fifteen acres of Chardonnay, Riesling and Pinot Noir grape vines overlook the Hudson River and the Catskill mountains. Relax in their tasting room and enjoy their wines in a stylish, intimate, candle lit space. Also, selling organic honey, handmade soaps and even local artwork.

November 5 & 6, 2016 Moonshine, Whiskey & Meats

Explore the historic Village of Rhinebeck, nosh at fabulous restaurants and shop 'til you drop at charming boutiques. Then enjoy a visit to *Dutch's Spirits** and the 400-acre farm that was the home of gangster Dutch Shultz's illicit Prohibition-era liquor operation. Taste their artisanal hand-made spirits including Sugar Wash Moonshine, Peach Brandy, and Dutch's American Era Cocktail bitters. Next, visit *Hillrock Estate Distillery** - proud to be one of the few "field-to-glass" whiskey producers in the world and the first USA distillery since before Prohibition to floor malt and hand craft whiskey on site from estate grown grain. By controlling every aspect of production from planting & harvesting heirloom grains, to smoking their malt, to crafting whiskies in their copper pot still, to aging in small oak barrels and hand bottling, they are able to create the highest quality whiskies reflecting the unique local terroir. The final stop will be at Sawkill Farm. This family owned farm in northern Dutchess raises wholesome and delicious meet and vegetables. They sell grass-fed beef & lamb, pastured pork & poultry, fresh eggs and organic vegetables from their garden. Their products are also available at markets in New York City.
